From the Pandemic Response Team: In the light of the continued growth in the numbers of new COVID cases, Cardinal Seán is extending the current mask mandate. It is mandated that throughout the Archdiocese all people attending public Masses, including weddings and funerals, wear masks. This is an extension of the mandate currently in affect, and expires on Thursday, March 3, 2022, which is the day after Ash Wednesday.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Synod on Synodality: Over the coming months, Catholics from around the world will be participating in the Synod on Synodality. What does that mean? Here in Boston it means that we will be gathering, as parishes and as a diocese to pray together and to invite the Holy Spirit to help us to listen deeply to one another, and we will talk together about how best to do that. So, for instance, a parish council may get together and ask "How can we as a parish council do a better job of letting the voices of all our parishioners be heard, even those who are not a part of an inner circle or who might be marginalized for whatever reason?" The archdiocese and the church around the world will be engaging in the same sort of conversation. We pray that the Lord will open our hearts to Him and to all of our people.

23 de enero ~
Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Re-lee el Evangelio de hoy. Ponte en escena: Estás en la sinagoga, tal vez tu familia esté a tu lado. Jesús, el hijo del carpintero, se levanta para leer: El está sirviendo como "el lector".

El hijo del carpintero lee un pasaje del profeta Isaías acerca de la promesa del Mesías. Al terminar, mira a las personas reunidas y dice: "Hoy este pasaje de las Escrituras se cumple en tu oído". ¿Quiénes son los ciegos, los oprimidos o los pobres en tu vida que necesitan escuchar las "Buenas Nuevas" de Jesucristo? ¡Hoy eres ese lector!

LA SEGUNDA COLECTA de esta semana apoya varios proyectos en Iglesia de América Latina y el Caribe. La colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina financia el trabajo de la evangelización, formación de laicos, religiosos, seminaristas, así como ministerio con Jóvenes y catequesis para más información por favor visite. www.usccb.org/catholic-giving/opportunities-for-giving/latin-america/index.cfm

January 23 ~ Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Re-read today's Gospel. Put yourself in the scene: you are in the synagogue, perhaps your family is beside you. Jesus, the carpenter's son, gets up to read - He is serving as "the lector." The carpenter's son reads a passage from the prophet Isaiah about the promise of the Messiah. Upon finishing, he looks at the people gathered and says: "Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Who are the blind, or the oppressed or the poor in your life that need to hear the "Good News" of Jesus Christ? Today, you are that lector!

Beautiful Beginnings
We wish to welcome into our parish family.
The following young people,
Who were baptized

Ayrton William Dolan

We pray to the Lord as a parish community that these little ones will grow in faith and as members of the Church, and that they be assisted through the word and the examples of their parents and godparents.
May all Christians express through their daily lives their devotion to Christ's cross with which they were marked on the day of their Baptism, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
