RETURN OF THE PIPE ORGAN!
Many have asked when we will hear the Cathedral's beautiful historic E. & G. G. Hook & Hastings pipe organ. Built in 1875 it is rare to have such a gem still tonally intact. During the renovation, the entire instrument was covered and protected from construction dust. About half of its 5,318 pipes were removed and stored off-site. These are now in the process of being reinstalled. Some mechanical adjustments are being made in the mean time. All the pipes will be re-tuned and regulated in coming weeks. Hopefully, this magnificent instrument will be playing July.

CATHOLIC NIGHT - FENWAY PARK
On June 24th at 7pm, the Cathedral Choir and Archdiocesan Festival and Youth Choir will sing the National Anthem at Fenway Park under the direction of Cathedral and Archdiocesan Music Director, Richard Clark. Prior to the first pitch, there will be a special pre-game ceremony honoring the important work of the Catholic Appeal. You can buy tickets at Redsox.com/catholicnight.
